LET US HAVE PEACE

Whatever the Result of the Contest Now Pending at Frankfort.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., Jan. 23, 1900.

Editor HERALD—Dear Sir: A few days since the Louisville Post stated, in substance, that "if the honest people of the state knew the condition of affairs at Frankfort 100,000 men would be marching there with guns and bayonets." Now, fellow-citizens, I see no necessity for a war. Let there be a full and fair investigation of the political controversy.
It can be done without the shedding of a drop of blood, and how much better would it be? Think for a moment of the result of an insurrection in our dear old state; think of the widows and orphans that were made by the late war; think of the great number of men made cripples for life—all for nothing—simply by listening to the hot, hasty, incendiary talk of jealous, envious, broken down politicians!

We want no war in this country. The Democrats don't want it, the wives and mothers of Wolfe county don't want war. Enough of our sons and brothers are engaged in war across the waters to keep our people in trouble for years to come. Now, who is it that wants war?
It is men who, should war be declared, would be the last to enlist on either side.

I have talked to a great many men in the past few days, and but one or two express a desire for war, and I know they would be the last men in the country to enter the fight should it come.

People, stop, and think for a moment what war would do. Think of the widows and orphans it would necessarily make, and all to satisfy the ambition of hot-headed politicians who expect to profit at the expense of the people. My God, my God, save this nation from a war. Let the authorities settle this matter, and as they settle it let that be the end of it. The Republican papers say some very hard things of the Democrats —of not only those who are at Frankfort engaged in the contest, but all over the state.

Now, fellow-citizens, I believe that there are some honest Democrats, and as many as you will find in any political party. But if there was not a single one in Kentucky, don't force a war on the state and people. Who is it that tells such willful lies? The Lexington Leader of January 19 says there was no idea of a break in the legislature until then. But Dr. A. C. Nickell, of this place, came from Frankfort a week ago, and he says it was talked of then. So someone has said wrong. Now, Democrats, don't be tempted to say or do anything that would lead to the shedding of blood in Kentucky. For God sake, you Republicans, who want to fight and kill, go to the Philippines and help settle the unholy war that is being waged there, or fight one another and let the people alone. Let them stay at home and be at peace.

As to the Democratic party and Bryan and Goebel, they can take care of themselves. The Democrats of this section have hardly decided which they had rather have at the head of the ticket, Bryan or Goebel. There is no use of lying about it as some are doing. The Democrats of the mountains are for Goebel and favor the contest, and when settled are willing to abide the decision let it be for or against them. These are facts notwithstanding the Republicans and these horrid bolters cry out that the Democrats of the mountains are opposed to the contest. Of all the men in Kentucky the Democrats have less use for the men they have heretofore honored who have now deserted them. Governor Simon Boliver Buckner I once thought would be the last man to desert his party, but he has done it. He says the party has no future until the element now in control is wiped out. The party is controlled not by men but by principles, and those principles are as pure as the dews of heaven but for the impurities it got by association with such men as those who bolted in a time of political battles —men who sneaked into the enemy's camp because the Democratic party refused to bow down to them and their gang.

So fellow-citizens don't be mistaken about the danger of a war for some Republicans and the Brown Democrats have a desire for war or anything else to happen rather than see the Democratic party succeed.

J. A. TAUBEE.

HON. ED. C. O'REAR.

Extract from article published in Morgan County Messenger, (Democratic,) January 5, 1898, when the question of dividing Kentucky into two Federal Districts was being agitated:

"As the new district would be principally composed of the counties of Eastern Kentucky, we should have a man in touch with the people of the district, and acquainted with their requirements. We have eminent, eligible and satisfactory material close at hand, in both of the leading parties. And, if the appointment should be filled with a Republican, we know of no higher qualifications for the position than those possessed by our neighbor and Morgan county's former citizen, the Hon. Ed. C.
O'Rear, of Mt. Sterling, Montgomery county. Possessing one of the brightest legal minds in the state, trained and seasoned by a long and successful experience in the practice; studious, industrious, conscientious, frank, amiable and honest, he would prove an ornament to the position and a source of satisfaction and confidence to all having business in the forum over which he would preside.

"True, Judge O'Rear has not, and may not ask for the position in the event the bill passes, but this, in our humble opinion would only serve to render his appointment the more satisfactory to those interested as it would bring to the place a man eminently fitted for it, and whose dignity will not have suffered from the influence of a political controversy. If we must have a Republican, let him be the best the party has in the shop.
Let it be O'Rear."

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Druggist.

All who desire to wear nicely laundried shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., should call on Robert Cord, agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry, the work of which is superior to that of any laundry in the state. tf.

Our People Talked About.

Jackson Hustler.]

Miss Laura Rawlings and Maggie Kash entertained a number of their friends at the beautiful residence of Mr. Floyd Day, on College avenue Tuesday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock. The feature of the evening was the sweet music furnished by Miss Jessie Thompson on the piano, and Prof. E. C. Evans on the violin and mandolin, which was highly enjoyed. At 9:30 refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Minnie Day, Bettie Cope, Jessie Thompson, Laura Rawlings, Maggie Kash, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Day; and Messrs. W.
W. Vaughan, C. J. Sewell, R. J.
Fulkerson, P. E. C. Evans and J. W. Cunningham.

Z. T. Hurst, of Campton, has found a 56 inch cannel coal vein on his Frozen creek farm 2½ miles from the Ohio and Kentucky Railroad. He thinks the deposit is extensive and will mine it.

James Hollon, son of J. B. Hollon, of Campton, is among the Wolfe county students attending S. P. Lees Institute, having entered last Tuesday.

More Corn and Less Hell.

Six murders in Morgan county in the last six weeks! A county that Judge Kinner less than a year ago boasted stood without an equal in the state. The bulldozing spirit seems to have taken hold of our people. Men seem to prefer to fight than to work, and good men feel the necessity of arming themselves in order to protect their person, property and families from bull-dogs in human form. In this dawn of a new year and a new sesson, the Messenger would most respectfully suggest that all of the people of Morgan dispose of their firearms, or oil them up and lay them away for real emergencies and make a resolution this year to raise more corn and less hell. The warm day in January and February may be occupied in repairing fences, etc., and if we go to work a splendid crop will be harvested in 1900.—Morgan Messenger.

Recruits Wanted.

First Lieutenant Jos. L. Donovan, recruiting officer at Lexington, says:

DEAR SIR:—I respectfully submit the following and would be glad if you can use the information as a news item. The Philippine regiments being full, I am now recruiting for home regiments only, and men can enlist and be sent to any of the following places: Second Infantry, Fort Thomas, Ky.; First Artillery, light battery, Fort Sam Houston, Texas; Fourth Artillery, Fort Hunt, Va.; Battalion of Engineers, Willets Point, N. Y.; Hospital Corps, Presidio, San Francisco, Cal. It is the desire of the War Department to fill these regiments as soon as possible, and any notice you may give will be appreciated.

The Confederate Tabernacle, now being erected for the United Confederate Veterans' Reunion, at Louisville, May 30, 31, June 1, 2 and 3, will seat ten thousand people. Every chair is a good one, no one being more than one hundred and twenty feet from the stage.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., Jan. 20.

Editor HERALD—Dear Sir:

I see that you have already begun to publish announcements for candidates for county offices to be voted for next November, and note among others that you now have two aspirants for county judge.
And, Mr. Editor, they are both good men, either of whom would make the county a presiding officer that the people could "point to with pride," as you would say.
But, I want to ask, why should we not re-elect the present incumbent, Judge G. T. Center? He has made the county a good moral official and his stand against those who traffic in liquor should commend him to all christian people and good citizens generally. I have talked with several citizens who take the view that I do, and if he will make the race he can certainly get their votes along with that of A SUBSCRIBER.

Three editions have already been printed of Biggle Horse Book, an announcement of which will be
